Primrose Hill Community Library

We are a volunteer-run community library in Primrose Hill with a large range of books for both adults and children. We also run events, including a film club, author talks, children's activities, bridge, and much more. Membership is free and we have over 4,000 members. The Library is open 4 days a week. We operate under the umbrella of Primrose Hill Community Association (charity number 298215).

The Library costs about £80,000 a year to run. The main expenses are staff, property costs and buying books. We try to cover half of this by letting out rooms on the days that the library is closed, and running events. So, each year we still have to raise the other £40,000 from donations and grants. That is where you all come in. Please help us continue our success, by filling in the standing order form below, or making a one-off donation.
